Facilitators / Organizers. The Retreat is deep cleaned prior to your booking arrival, and it is your responsibility to keep clean and sanitized, please be aware of the NSW Health requirements prior to booking as we have no direct contact with your clients and the activities and sleeping arrangements that you have organized.

Rainbows Reach Retreat is a self-managed retreat. Upon entering the hire of the facility, you are required to satisfy the current Health Orders that might apply at the time of hire.

This might change at any time without notice and might affect your booking of the Retreat. In booking the Retreat you accept that as the facilitator and organizer you might be required to have a Covid-19 safety plan. Your plan must be compliant with the NSW Health guidelines based on your industry as they are set at the time of your stay.

We require that you ensure that they are not from a hotspot effected area and show no cold or flu like symptoms, if so please ensure that they do not attend and to stay home and self-isolate. We hope by working together we can continue to offer the Retreat as a safe space for all users.

You must use your own QR code as required to check in to your event organized by you.

As a condition in hiring the Retreat that you have read and agree to our policies and it will be deemed accepted once you pay a deposit.

We will not be held responsible for any Government orders or changes that might affect your stay at the Retreat or financial loss that s beyond our control.

As the facilitator and organizer of your event please make time to view our Retreat and that it will be acceptable for your event.

This Covid plan has been updated as at 24/11/2021 and it might change without warning.
